Statement of intent

Banks Lane Infant & Nursery School believes that all governors must receive a comprehensive induction package in order to successfully fulfil their role. This policy ensures that new governors are provided with the support and information necessary to give a thorough understanding of their role as a school governor.

Through this policy, we aim to ensure that every new governor:

- Is welcomed by the school and governing board.
- Is provided with the necessary tools and information to begin their governance role as early as possible.
- Visits the school to gain contextual information.
- Meets the headteacher, governing board, staff and pupils.
- Understands the role of the governing board and its committees.
- Understands their role and responsibilities, and their accountabilities.
- Understands their training needs and requirements, particularly in relation to the DfE's competency framework.
- Is provided with a comprehensive induction pack.
- Is presented with the opportunity to ask questions.

	Acts as an ambassador for the school.
	Supports and challenges leaders to raise aspirations and community cohesion both within the wider community and with local employers.
Risk management	Is able to identify and prioritise the organisational and key risks, their impact and appropriate countermeasures, contingencies and risk owners.
	Ensures risk management and internal control systems are robust enough to enable the school to deliver its strategy in the short- and long-term.
	Advises on how risks should be managed or mitigated to reduce the likelihood or impact of the risk, and on how to achieve the right balance of risk without unduly impacting opportunities.

	Ensures the risk management and internal control systems are monitored and reviewed, and appropriate actions are taken.
	Actively avoids conflicts of interest or otherwise declares and manages them.
Educational improvement	Establishes clear expectations for executive leaders in relation to the process of educational improvement and intended outcomes.
	Defines the range and format of information and data they need in order to hold executive leaders to account.
	Seeks evidence from executive leaders to demonstrate the appropriateness and potential impact of proposed improvement initiatives.
	Questions leaders on how the in-school assessment system effectively supports the attainment and progress of all pupils, including those with SEND.
Data analysis	Analyses and interprets data in order to evaluate performance of groups of pupils.
	Analyses and interprets progression and destination data to understand where young people are moving on to after leaving the school.
	Uses published data to better understand which areas of school performance needs improvement and is able to identify any further data that is required.
	Questions leaders on whether they are collecting the right data, and using the appropriate evidence, to inform their assessment, and challenges appropriately when data collection is not adding value.
	Challenges senior leaders to ensure that the collection of assessment data is purposeful, efficient and valid.

Financial frameworks and accountability	Has a basic understanding of financial management in order to ensure the integrity of financial information received by the board and to establish robust financial controls.
	Has confidence in the arrangements for the provision of accurate and timely financial information, and the financial systems used to generate such information.
	Interprets budget monitoring information and communicates this clearly to others.
	Participates in the school's self-evaluation of activities relating to financial performance, efficiency and control.
	Is rigorous in their questioning in order to better understand whether enough is being done to drive financial efficiency and align budgets to priorities.
Financial management and monitoring	Possesses the knowledge to make decisions about allocating current and future funding.
	Interprets financial data and asks informed questions about income, expenditure, resource allocation and alignment with the strategic plan priorities.
Staffing and performance management	Ensures that the staffing and leadership structures are fit for purpose.
	Takes full responsibility for maintaining, updating and implementing a robust and considered pay policy.
	Feels confident in approving and applying the system for performance management of executive leaders.
	Identifies and considers the budgetary implication of pay decisions and considers these in the context of the spending plan.
	Pays due regard to ensuring that leaders and teachers are able to have a satisfactory work-life balance.

External accountability	Ensures appropriate structures, processes and professional development are in place to support the demands of internal and external scrutiny.
	Values the ownership that parents and carers and other stakeholders feel about 'their school' and ensures that the board makes itself accessible and answerable to them.
	Uses an understanding of relevant data and information to present verbal and written responses to external scrutiny.
Building an effective team	Demonstrates commitment to their role and to active participation in governance.
	Possesses the ability to acquire the basic knowledge that they need to be effective in their role.
	Uses active listening effectively to build a rapport and strong collaborative relationships.
	Welcomes constructive challenge and is respectful when challenging others.
	Provides timely feedback and is positive about receiving feedback in return.
	Seeks to resolve misunderstandings at the earliest stage in order to prevent conflict.
